

Juniper Block Bulletin

Small news, useful dates, and one good reason to step outside.

ON THE CORNER

The library cart returns

After a month in the repair shop, the little blue book cart rolls back to the plaza this Saturday. Volunteers added a weatherproof lid, brighter wheels, and a shelf reserved for local zines.

Bring one book or simply browse. The cart runs on trust: take what you will read, leave what a neighbor might love.

A SMALL REQUEST

Please keep donations to two clean books per household so the cart can close safely.

BACKYARD NOTE

Tomatoes after the heat

Water deeply in the morning, leave damaged leaves until the hottest week passes, and harvest split fruit early. The seed swap table has paper bags by the sign-in sheet.

THIS WEEK

THU 20

Porch concert

7:00 PM / Maple steps

SAT 22

Book cart return

10:00 AM / East plaza

SUN 23

Seed swap

2:00 PM / Garden gate

ONE GOOD REASON

The evenings are finally cool enough for the long way home.

NOTICE BOARD

- Lost: one red garden glove near Juniper and Third.
- Found: brass key on a blue cord at the plaza bench.
- Needed: two folding tables for the seed swap.